

UNDERSTANDING SELF AND OTHERS

NEWS ABOUT ME AND WHAT I SEE

What is happening in your life? How could creating an index card story series that illustrates and reports on the news in your life help to capture a snapshot of that builds understanding of yourself, others, and the unusual times we live in?

- What news about you and your life will be featured in your news report?
- What happened? What did you see and hear? How did you feel?
- Do you want to save these stories to reflect on them at a later time or mail them as postcards to others?
- Why is it important to capture the news of the day, especially during challenging times?
